TYPES OF SEXUAL ASSAULT & VICTIMIZATION COVERED BY PREA

Sexual victimization: Encompasses all acts listed below and any act perpetrated by an offender that involves unwanted sexual attention or solicitation, whether forced or coerced, physical or verbal as well as any consensual act that is committed by a person with authority over or control of another individual.

Sexual Solicitation: Any request of a sexual nature; a request for sexual contact or for performance of sexual act, or a request to allow another to perform a sexual act, includes requests to watch or be watched while any act is performed for the purpose of sexual gratification, or while sexual contact is initiated or while a body part is exposed for the purpose of sexual gratification.

Sexual Coercion: Any attempt to influence an individual to consent or participant in sexual contact including bribes, promises of remuneration or special consideration and threats of force or violence or harm to others and or repercussions such as deprivation of privileges. Any sexual relationship between an offender and a NHDOC staff member constitutes sexual coercion.

1. Staff Sexual Misconduct

I. Definition of Sexual Misconduct

Sexual Misconduct (as it relates to NHDOC) is conduct of a sexual nature that is directed by staff toward offenders, by offenders toward other offenders, or by offenders toward staff. An "offender" is anyone under the care, custody and supervision of the Department of Corrections. "Staff" or "staff member" is anyone employed by, contracted by or volunteering for the Department of Corrections. Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to the following acts or attempted acts:

1. Sexual contact and/or intercourse
2. Requiring or allowing an offender to engage in sexual contact, sexual intercourse, or other sexual conduct for any reason (e.g., the sexual gratification of a staff member).
3. Any action designed for sexual gratification of an offender or staff member, such as masturbating in front of another person
4. Making or encouraging obscene or sexual advances, gestures or comments or exposing genitalia, buttocks or female breasts.
5. Touching of self in a sexually provocative way
6. Beginning any form or type of communication of a sexual nature
7. Influencing or making promises regarding safety, custody, parole status, privacy, housing, privileges, work assignments, program status, etc., in exchange for sexual favors. This includes an exchange of anything of value between staff and offender or offender and offender.
8. Threats, intimidation or retaliation for reporting an incident of sexual assault.

Under NH law, an offender cannot legally consent to sexual activity with anyone while incarcerated.

- It is never appropriate for a staff member to make sexual advances or comments, or to engage in sexual contact with an offender.
- A staff member would be committing a criminal offense by participating in any sexual activity with an offender.
- It is not appropriate for an offender to approach a staff member in a sexual manner. This type of behavior is prohibited and corrective action will be taken to stop such behavior from occurring.
- No one has the right to pressure anyone to engage in sexual acts.

II. What happens to reports of sexual misconduct? Investigation

All allegations of sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, over-familiarity and retaliation will be investigated.

Retaliation is intimidation to prevent an offender from filing a complaint or participation in an investigation of sexual misconduct. The DOC prohibits anyone from interfering with an investigation, including by intimidation or retaliation against witnesses or victims. Any form of retaliation should be reported to a trusted staff member, the warden or investigations.

Anyone who sexually abuses or assaults an offender will be disciplined and may be criminally prosecuted. Discipline and criminal prosecution are more likely to be successful if the abuse is reported immediately; but regardless of when the assault occurred, it should be reported.

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
POLICY ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT

I. POLICY STATEMENT

All employees of the State of New Hampshire are entitled to work in an environment free of sexually inappropriate behavior. The State of New Hampshire is committed to preventing and eliminating such misconduct in the workplace before it rises to the level of sexual harassment. To accomplish these goals, the state's policy against sexual harassment shall be clearly and regularly communicated to all state employees, both supervisory and non-supervisory, through periodic educational programs and training. In addition, this policy shall be implemented through the complaint investigation procedures set forth below. This policy shall also serve as a guideline for the investigation of any other type of discrimination prohibited by law.

All complaints of sexual harassment or retaliation shall be promptly and thoroughly investigated. Particular care shall be taken in the course of investigations to protect the confidentiality of all involved to the extent possible. Should it be determined that a state employee has violated this policy, immediate and appropriate corrective and/or disciplinary action shall be taken. This may include discharge and/or other forms of discipline. The type and extent of corrective action regarding non-employees will depend on the amount of control the agency has over the non-employee.

II. POLICY PURPOSE – STATEMENT OF PROHIBITED CONDUCT

Harassment and discrimination in employment based on sex are illegal under federal and state law and shall not be tolerated in state employment. Maintenance of a discriminatory work environment is also prohibited. Every state employee has a duty to observe the law and shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action such as discharge for failing to do so.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT: an unwelcome sexual advance, a request for a sexual favor, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for the employment decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment. Any supervisor who threatens or suggests, either explicitly or implicitly, that an employee's refusal to submit to sexual advances or other conduct of a sexual nature will adversely affect the employee's job and/or working conditions has committed sexual harassment. Any supervisor who threatens or suggests, either explicitly or implicitly, that an employee's refusal to submit to sexual advances or other conduct of a sexual nature will adversely affect the employee's job and/or working conditions has committed sexual harassment. In order to rise to the level of legally actionable sexual harassment, conduct creating a hostile work environment must be severe or pervasive. However, it is the intent of the State to prevent conduct from escalating to the point that a hostile work environment exists. To that end, the following conduct is considered inappropriate and is prohibited from the workplace regardless of whether it rises to the level of being severe or pervasive: verbal abuse of a sexual nature, unwelcome, offensive sexual flirtation; unwelcome, graphic verbal comments about an individual's body; sexually degrading words to describe an individual; unwelcome brushing, touching, patting or pinching an individual's body; sexually explicit gestures; the display in the workplace of sexually suggestive, sexually demeaning or pornographic objects, pictures, posters or cartoons; unwelcome inquiry or comment about sexual conduct or sexual orientation or preferences; or verbal abuse consistently targeted at only one sex, even if the content of the abuse is not sexual. Sexual harassment is unlawful and hurts other employees. Whether the conduct is severe or pervasive shall be considered in determining the level of appropriate corrective action.

III. PROCEDURES FOR MAKING, INVESTIGATING AND RESOLVING SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND RETALIATION COMPLAINTS

A. COMPLAINTS

Complaints of sexual harassment or of retaliation for making such complaints shall be made, either in writing or verbally, to the Director of the Division of Personnel or the agency Human Resource Administrator, who shall then refer the complaint to the Director. Complaints may also be made/submitted to the employee's supervisor, who shall be responsible for transmitting any complaint received to the agency Human Resource Administrator. If the employee's supervisor is involved in the alleged harassment, the employee may submit the complaint to the next supervisor in their direct chain of command, who shall be responsible for transmitting any complaint received to the agency Human Resource Administrator. The Director of Personnel shall then assign as appropriate, one or two investigators. If only one investigator is assigned, the investigator shall be from outside the complainant's agency. No employee shall be required to file a complaint with a supervisor who hostile to that employee and/or who engages in conduct or has been alleged to have engaged in conduct which could be considered sexual harassment. Any supervisor who has knowledge of sexual harassment or retaliation against a person who has reported sexual harassment, shall be required to report it to the Director of personnel or the agency human resource administrator. Failure to report may result in appropriate corrective action, which may include discipline. During the pendency of the investigation, the agency, in consultation with the Director of Personnel, shall promptly take such action as is reasonably calculated to prevent further harassment from occurring.
